CHAUTAUQUA COMES HERE JUNE 7 TO 13

The first announcement of the attractions to be presented at the Chautauqua which is to held in Ukiah June 7 to 13 inclusive, clearly indicates that Reconstruction problems are receiving primary consideration in this important forum of the people this year. Probably never before have so many men and women of national standing been included on the lecture list. After-the-war issues and developments are to be treated from all angles and viewpoints.

Foremost among the members of the lecture staff stand Hon. J. Adam Bede, formerly Congressman from Minnesota, and Edward F. Trefz, member of the American Food Mission to Europe and assistant to Herbert Hoover of the Food Administration during the war. Adam Bede is the man who turned down the vice-presidency and set the nation laughing by his keenly humorous article about it in a national weekly. His lecture, "Our Nation; It's Problems and Progress," will be one of the big constructive messages of week. Edward F. Trefz, is known throughout the country not only for his war work, but also as one of the organizers of the National Chamber of Commerce at Washington and for years the Field Secretary. In the past eight years he has delivered 4891 addresses before Chamber of Commerce and National Trade Association meetings. He is a business orator and will treat the Reconstruction problems from a business man's viewpoint.

Private Peat, unquestionably one of the greatest lecturers, humorists and writers the war period has produced, will tell the war story of the week. His book, "Private Peat", his articles in the national magazines and his movie films have made his name a household word throughout the United States and Canada.

The music of the week is of more than usual intererst. The feature attraction is to be Jaroslav Cimera and his Czecho-Slovak Band, a splendid musical organization from that little country of Bohemia which has been so much in the eyes of the world of late. In the evening Madame Helen Caferelli, formerly in Chicago opera, will present a group of Bohemian folk songs. Another headline musical attraction will be the Chautauqua tour of Mary Adel Hays, the New York coloratura soprano who has established a prominent place for herself in the world of music. She will appear on the fourth evening, assisted by her company of Recital Artists. The Lewis Military Quartet, four voices picked from forty thousand at Camp Lewis, is probably the best male voice ensemble that has ever been over the Chautauqua circuits. Each member is a concert or opera singer, with the ability to do splendid solo work. Other musical companies to be presented during the week are the Fillion Concert Party, under the direction of Ferdinand Fillion and including Fern Goltra, formerly with the Chicago Grand Opera Association; The McDonough-Eagleston Company, two musical fun-makers; the Reginers, in music and entertainment, and the Apollo Concert Company, five exceptional musicians featuring the Apollophone in their two concerts.

Edwin M. Whitney, of Boston, is another big name in the program list. This famous interpreter of plays brings "Turn to the Right" in monologue form. He has the exclusive rights on this big metropolitan success and his delineation of its dozen characters borders on the phenomenal. Another entertainer well known in the Chautauqua world on the coming program is Elsie Mae Gordon. This talented Hoosier girl will present the negro, Italian and child sketches, which have won name and fame for her.

The children's work is given special stress this year. A unique pageant "Uncle Sam's Experiment", is to be presented by the kiddies on the last afternoon. A travelling pageant director will have charge of the work and a Story Lady specially trained in playground work will come for the full week as usual.

Lewis Military Quartet Comes to Chautauqua

Four Splendid Voices in This Quartet From Camp Lewis

The Lewis Military Quartet is nothing less than the pick of the many splendid voices at the great Western cantonment, Camp Lewis. It is a quartet which war alone made possible. We doubt, indeed, if under any other conditions four such unusual singers could have been assembled. Two of the members have been prominent in the ranks of opera, two in the concert and oratorio world. Their programs are delightfully varied between light and heavy music, the populir ballads and the classics. And through all there is a world of real harmony such as one only hears in the perfect blending of four splendidly trained men's voices.

Stationery for the Farmer

The up-to-date farmer should have neatly printed letterheads and envelopes. Name your farm and let your stationery carry the name. If you specialize on some particular line, let your stationery announce that fact also. Ordered in lots of several hundred each of letterheads and envelopes printed stationery is no more expensive than the blank kind you get at the stationery store. Write or call for prices.

Private Peat, Lecturer at Chautauqua on the Sixth Night, Center of Happy Group on Mail Day in France

Private Harold R. Peat, who comes to Chautauqua on the sixth night, is unquestionably the best-known war lecturer in the country today. His own story, "Private Peat," has been one of the biggest selling books everywhere for the last two years. His articles in the Saturday Evening Post and other magazines have attracted wide comment.

He was a member of the first Canadian contingent and spent two years in France and Flanders. He was one of the heroic Canadians in that pitiably thin line that stood between the Germans and the channel ports in the early days of the war. He saw his company, ammunition exhausted, surrounded by Huns and captured. He lay fifty-two hours on the battlefield, "my shoulder smashed, my lung punctured, ribs caved in and a few other trifles busted and dislocated."

His lecture subject will be the same as his film released lately and one of the Saturday Evening Post articles, "Two Years in Hell and Back With a Smile."

Apollos Close Chautauqua

Famous Concert Company Presents Two Programs on Last Day

There is probably no better known musical organization in the Lyceum or Chautauqua world than the Apollo Concert Company. For a dozen years this company, under the leadership of Arthur Wells, has been piling up a record of successes in every state and territory in the Union. They are to close Chautauqua this year with two smashing programs featuring the Apollophone, a specially constructed instrument, embracing the best qualities of the marimbaphone and xylophone. Their program is of infinate variety,

JOHN W. PRESTON SUBMITS WAR REPORT

John W. Preston, special assistant to the United States Attorney-general in war work, whose office here is to be permanently closed Thursday, yesterday submitted to the Attorney-General a report covering his activities from the time of his appointment on July 25, 1918. The report shows that out of 150 cases personally prosecuted by him, Preston did not lose one. His most important prosecution was the so-called German-Hindu plot cases, wherein thirty five defendants were convicted. These included Franz Bopp, former German Consul-General here, and other members of the German Consulate. Preston intends to engage in the private practice of law in this city.

Social and Club Activities

While local public opinion may be divided, equally or unequally, over the location of a community center and athletic field and still more hopelessly divided over which is the greatest need—a community club house or an athletic field—it is not divided over the crying need of a symbolical monument to commemorate the valor and patriotism of Mendocino's brave sons. It is not in keeping with the new idealism that the memorial be a structure whose purpose is beauty alone but rather one whose highest function is fulfilled in its service to mankind. Surely, when the good deeds of our boys are of such a character as we know them to be, the kind of a memorial that perpetuates their valor and patriotism will take the form of doing good to the living whose need is urgent. The needs of an athletic field are great. Education must go hand in hand with athletics if education is indeed the corner-stone of Democracy because a sound body is one of the first requisites for good citizenship and education is of no avail to a feeble mind brought on by an unsound body. These facts must be apparent to all thoughtful citizens. The need of a community club house is one that has been recognized by the civic workers interested in municipal needs. It is one of the desirable things of life which has become a necessity for the latent forces of citizenship. Either municipal need will make a fitting memorial to our boys and if we cannot have the one let us unite our efforts for the other. Remember the wise saying "A stream will not rise above its source." Our children may not rise above our municipal environment; therefore let us work for the facilities essential to the right environment by erecting a memorial that will serve mankind.

DRAMATIC SECTION OF CLUB STAGES PLAYLET

True to schedule the Saturday Afternoon Club met last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Stout in north Oak street. Miss Carrie Garsey, Mrs. Lucia Hopkins and Mrs. McCracken were assistant hostesses and the day was one of special significance inasmuch as the dramatic section of the club were in charge of the program and there were many guests including all those whose names are entered on the membership waiting list. Upon entering the hospitable doors of the Stout home one's eyes were greeted by the varied hues of roses and one's nostrils were assailed by their fragrance for there were roses everywhere. Roses in vases and jardinieres, roses entwined in fish netting and roses tumbling out of huge Indian "pack" baskets. The program was held in the large auditorium-like room on the upper floor that has been fitted up as a den. One end had been arranged as a stage and it was here that the many delightful and entertaining features of the program were given by the dramatic section. The occasion gave the club women and their guests an opportunity to learn who's who in local dramatic art circles. There has been no more convincing demonstration of artistic dramatic and musical ability than that given by the club women on the dramatic program last Saturday. Overwhelming applause greeted their superb achievement. The program follows:

Mandolin Duo----------
Mrs. Robherd Thomas, Miss Perry
Dramatic Reading: "The Courting of Bridget" ----------
Ruth Sawyer, Mrs. Louis Hildreth
Steel Guitar Selection ----------
---------- Miss Minnie Hart
Vocal Solo: "When Roses Bloom"
-------- Miss Catherine Thomas
One act play, "A Woman's A Woman For A' That" Mary McMillan
Cast of Characters
Mrs. Stymie--Mrs. Elmer Albertson
Dr. Blufwell ----Mrs. Elmer Gibson
Miss Iris, a trained nurse -----
---------- Mrs. Phillip Joseph
Nilblick, Mrs. Stymie's son ------
---------Mrs. Emile Waldteufel
Veterinary ----Mrs. Wm. Bromley
Mandolin Duo ----------
Mrs. Robherd Thomas, Miss Perry
Selected -------Mrs. Nelie Gibison

Refreshments were served in the three rooms on the lower floor following thep resentation of the program. Here as elsewhere were roses but only of a pink hue. The many tables placed about held cut glass bowls filled with pink roses and five-fingered ferns and the daylight was excluded for the more witching light of pink-shaded candles. A delightful feature of the refreshment hour was the exquisite music of a violin and piano. The players, Mr. Pollock and Gilbert Picou were screened from view but the delightfully rhythmic melody carried the freshness and sweetness of rose-time to every corner of the rooms. This feature was arranged by Mrs. Nellie Gibson to whom the club is indebted for the musical environment of the social hour. It was truly a delightful afternoon, made doubly so by the hospitable environment which the hostesses infused into it with the charm of their individuality.

LOCAL CLUB WOMAN HONORED

Dr. Bertola, president of the San Francisco District California Federation of Woman's Clubs, has appointed Mrs. Louis Hildreth of the Saturday Afternoon Club of this city district chairman of the bureau of international relations. The appointment makes Mrs. Hildreth a member of the executive committee of the San Francisco District and is a recognition of the appointee's worth as a club woman.

WOMAN TO THE FORE

Speaking of club women reminds one of the extensive notice Mrs. Percy S. King, past president of the San Francisco District, is receiving this week in the metropolitan press over her election as president of the city board of trustees of Napa. During the recent convention in Watsonville Mrs. King was one of the prominent figures of the convention. She is a quiet earnest woman with a long record of club activities. She has made an exhaustive study of civics and will stand solidly behind any movement for community betterment work in her lovely home city.

SENIOR CLASS AND FACULTY FETED

The gorgeous red roses of the Maytime and banks of woodwardia ferns combined very beautifully in the adornments of the pretty party at which Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Boring entertained the Senior class and faculty of the Ukiah high school Wednesday evening. The Boring residence on South State street was the scene of the delightful gathering. Pretty gowns were worn by the charming young girls of the graduating class and the affair was characterized as one of the prettiest affairs of the spring season. Supplementing the floral decorations were long streamers of red ribbon that ran from thec lass numerals fashioned of red satin to every corner of the room. An alcove was converted into a bower of red roses, the class color, and ferns through which glimmered many small incandescent lights, red shaded. Raspberry punch was served from this pretty floral setting. Dancing and cards were the diversions of the evening. At the conclusion of the evening dainty refreshments were served. About thirty guests were present. Lieutenant and Mrs. Kirk, who have recently arrived from France, were the only guests outside of the class and faculty circle.

SOCIETY 25 YEARS AGO

The opening ball at Orr's Hot Springs last Friday evening was one of the most delightful and successful ever held at that resort. There was a large number of guests from Ukiah. The ball supper, served under the direction of W. T. Wilson, the well-known caterer, was all that the most fastidious taste could wish.

Local society entertained the officers of the second artillery regiment at a down-town hotel last Saturday evening. The officers, who came up to Ukiah in the private car of A. W. Foster arrived Saturday and returned Sunday after selecting a camp site for the regiment. They were delighted with Ukiah and vicinity.

SOCIETY 15 YEARS AGO

The Senior class of the high School have been much feted guests this week owing to their graduation from the Ukiah high school. The commencement exercises were held last Thursday evening in Mark's Hall and a large audience taxed the capacity of the building. Miss Effie Cooper was the Valedictorian. The class was made up of the following young people: Alma Atkinson, Cecille Clark, E. L. Cunningham, Carl Hoag, Lillian Poor, Martha Brunner, Effie Cooper, Almon Roth, Susie Davis, Elfrida Pierson, Earl Snell.

The Saturday Afternoon Club enjoyed a "Russian Tea" at the home of Mrs. H. Marks last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Arthur Thatcher presided. The program included Russian ballads and folk songs, a selection from a Russian opera and a discussion of Russian literature.

Redemeyer are in charge of the arrangements.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

The home of Supervisor and Mrs. Marvin Ford north of town was the scene of a dinner party Friday evening in honor of Mr. Ford's birthday. An unusual and happy feature of the gathering was the fact that all the children, and grandchildren were present and they number 22. The head of this splendid family more nearly resembles a big brother than a parent except for a reserve and quietness of nature that on this happy anniversary gave way to the joy of the occasion. The table was prettily adorned, by the daughters of the household, in red roses and ferns and in addition to the huge birthday cake with its 'steen candles there was roast turkey and all the other good things that the women of the Ford family know so well how to prepare. It was truly a happy occasion and one that will live long in the memory of those present.

PLAYED PROGRESSIVE WHIST

The members of the whist club motored to the suburban home of Mrs. Victor McGarvey last Saturday afternoon where they were splendidly entertained. As usual a luncheon was a feature of the afternoon's enjoyment. Mrs. McGarvey seatd her guests about a table artistically decorated in varied shades of pink. The color was emphasized in the candle light, the rose-shaped salted almond containers, the place cards and the low mound of Cecil Breuner roses that were fringed with maiden-hair ferns. A HANDSOME HOME

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Caughey are receiving many compliments over the handsome interior arrangements of their home which has been undergoing a complete remodeling for some months and which will soon be nearing completion. In the meantime both Mr. and Mrs. Caughey are proudly piloting their friends about the premises and as proudly receiving their exclamations of admiration. The entire house, which is on the corner of Church and south Bush streets, will be converted into the most modern of dwellings with broad windows and many French doors opening into the attractive garden. The exterior will be shingled to the first story and the eaves lowered and made in the popular overhanging style. The interior woodwork is being much admired and the effect, upon entering, is one of restfulness and charm. Mr. and Mrs. Caughey have been occupying the Gobbi cottage in west Perkins street but will move into their home again about July 1.

CULTUS CLUB'S INDOOR PICNIC WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The weather gods were not kind and frowned upon the well-laid plans of the Cultus Club to such an extent that the picnic, originally scheduled for Vichy Springs had to take place in the I. O. O. F. hall owing to the dampness. However it was a most enjoyable affair with a basket supper and many other enjoyable features. The ladies and their escorts wore picnic costumes and everything was in accord with the well known hospitality of the club. When the delightful supper had been enjoyed, Mrs. Nellie Gibson appeared, and with her usual graciousness, volunteered her services as pianist for the dancing party that brought to a close the evening's pleasure. The club will hold its last meeting for the year on next Tuesday evening with Mrs. Belle Banker and Mrs. Hazel McCowen as hostesses. The musical section will present an operetta and the election of officers will be held.

COAST NEWS NOTES

FORT BRAGG, May 14.—The three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Staples, who reside across Pudding Creek, had his nose almost bitten off by a dog this week.

That the United States Government engineers are taking a keen interest in the proposed Noyo River channel improvement comes to light this week in thef act that they have called for more detailed information concerning the amount of salmon shipped out. The fact that 100 ton of mildcured salmon have thus far been shipped from the Uoyo to the Atlantic Coast appears to have created a most favorable impression.

Herman Holquist, a promising young man and highly esteemed resident of Caspar, passed away in Fort Bragg Monday morning after a long and lingering illness. At the time of our first flu epidemic Mr. Holquist returned from Colfax where he rallied nicely from lung trouble. He contracted the flu, however, and new tuberculor troubles followed.

Deceased was the son of Mrs. Hulda Holquist of Caspar and was born and raised in that city. He was 28 years, 3 months and 28 days old.

Word comes this week of the announcement of the wedding of Miss Effie Gamberg of Fort Bragg and Mr. George Harris of San Francisco, which occurred at Stockton on April 3. Miss Gamberg is one of our popular young ladies and Mr. Harrie is a splendid young man holding a good position on the San Francisco Call.

Trefz in London Bread Line

Member of American Food Mission to Europe Lecturer at Chautauqua on Second Night

That the bread lines of England were a very real and a very serious problem was one of the things reported to the Food Administration by the American Food Mission, of which Edward F. Trefz was one of the leading members. His lectures throughout Canada and the United States upon his return, under the direction of the Food Administration, gave a tremendous impetus to the food conservation campaign. Throughout the entire war period he was one of Herbert Hoover's chief assistants.

But perhaps better known than Trefz' war work is the great record he achieved as Field Secretary of the National Chamber of Commerce.

Now Trefz comes to the Chautauqua platform—unquestionably one of the biggest men and most forceful speakers ever presented before Western Chautauqua audiences. He comes to talk on Reconstruction from the business man's standpoint. It is a subject very close to his heart.

WILLITS NOTES

WILLITS, May 13.—Saturday night the girls of the Mendocino high school and the girls of the Willits high school played a game of basket ball here for the county championship. The game was full of pep but the Willits girls had the coast girls outclassed from the start and when the game ended the score stood 8 to 15 in favor of Willits.

Yesterday afternoon two I. W. W.s came to town and got drunk and were arrested by Constable J. M. Whitcomb. Before they were arrested they had a group of small boys following them and they were giving the same pretty strong I. W. W. talk. Mr. Whitcomb arrested them on a charge of drunkenness to which they plead guilty this morning and the prospects are that Judge Whitney will send them to the county bastile and Sheriff Byrnes will then have a chance to get them on the more serious charge.

Nick Pomen will leave today for his old home in Greece, where he expects to spend the summer. When he returns he will bring his family back with him.

A daughter was born to the wife of Chas. Whitney, May 9th, and a son to the wife of E. B. Livingston May 12th.

A. J. James and P. H. Taylor left yesterday for San Francisco where they will attend the I. O. O. F. grand lodge. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. Leak and Miss Lena Wilming who are the delegates to the Rebekah Assembly.

Eugene Burns returned from France last week. He was a member of the 202 Hospital corps and was stationed at one of the largest A. E. F. hospitals in Orleans, France. Before he entered the service he was the principal of the Caspar school.

Under the doctor's treatment and care of his nephews, who were summoned from their home at the upper end of the valley the old gentleman gradually recovered and is now able to be around again. The scenery was beautiful and the roads splendid which added much to the pleasure of motoring at this time of the year. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jameson, J. W. Standley and family, and R. E. Duffee and family in San Francisco. A motor party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jameson and Mr. and Mrs. Duffee, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jameson, Miss Leva Jameson and Mrs. Tom Jameson, motored from the city to San Jose where they visited friends. Oakland, Stanford University, and all points of interest around the bay were visited. It is believed that these salmon work up the coast each year to spawn in Eel river, after the first rains in the fall.

All of the local fishermen at present are very busy getting ready for the season's fish.

NEW REPUBLICAN VIEW ON LEAGUE

No one can read thel atest statements of responsible Republican leaders on the subject of a League of Nations without interpreting them to mean a distinct and almost complete reversal of their position from one of unequivocal rejection to that of plain, if somewhat reluctant, acceptance of President Wilson's proposal and viewpoint.

Numerous and widespread tests and analysis of public opinion have disclosed that President Wilson was correct in his statement that an overwhelming majority of Americans is in favor of the League of Nations. Republican hostility was prompted by a miscalculation of this sentiment. That mistake bred another—the determination to make the covenant of the league a partisan issue when it deserved, and President Wilson urged that it be discussed wholly as a question of America's new external relations dictated by our participation in the greatest of wars and by our obligations and interests as one of the parties to a permanent peace.

There is no disposition among Democrats and supporters of the President to disparage this change of opinion among Republican spokesmen. This abandonment of their original stand is the part of wisdom, and friends of a league are quite willing that it shall become also the part of patriotism. Most of those Republicans who mistakenly believed that a league was a departuref rom our best traditions, a surrender of American rights and jurisdiction over matters of purely internal concern, may now co-operate with President Wilson and a majority of their fellow countrymen in establishing the league and a just and lasting peace. They can thus easily merit forgiveness for their first error of judgment by an evidence of readiness to work according to their better understanding.

To those Republicans, who persist in their partisan bias and prejudice some words of advice may be offered—more in sorrow than in anger. If by any chance their opposition could defeat the league of nations, in the face of the public demand for its adoption, they would have condemned themselves to endless obloquy; they would have provoked their deprivation of office and power and good repute. If their attempt were made without success—as any such an attempt is foredoomed to be made—they would have brought upon themselves a hardly less measure of punishment. In either event they would be the losers.

WHERE RESPONSIBILITY LIES

Although the Republican filibuster during the closing days of the Sixty-fifth Congress defeated several appropriation measures that were of vast importance in the Administration's reconstruction plans, the Government Departments are going ahead with their work in such a way as to merit and receive the commendation of the country. Though handicapped by lack of sufficient funds, by redoubling efforts the Departments are accomplishing a great deal that is helping to stabilize conditions and get the country back into its normal swing.

Particularly is this true of the United Employment Service. Labor officials have charged that the defeat of the appropriation for this service, which had made extensive plans to get hundreds of thousands of discharged soldiers and sailors and released war workers back into peace-time employment, was inspired by certain interests seeking to impair the efficiency of the Department of Labor. Despite the failure of the appropriation, Labor Department officials have through State and private aid obtained sufficient funds to not merely keep the service going, but to open scores of new employment offices and thousands upon thousands of released fighters and war workers are being placed in good paying jobs in essential industries.

Nevertheless, we have the spectacle of seeking private aid in order to discharge a duty the Federal Government owes to the men who heeded the call to the colors when the national emergency arose, and the American people, remembering the G. O. P. filibuster, will know where to place the responsibility.

"Discussion of the merits and faults of the scheme with a view to amendment is now the regular order of business. It was to give an opportunity for such a discussion that the paper was reported to the Paris Conference and made public by the committee that prepared it."—Elihu Root on the League of Nations. And not to jam it down the throats of the American people, as "round robin" Senators would have us believe President Wilson was trying to do.

There are two roads: one leads to peace, the other to war. The world has learned its lesson, and under the leadership of Lloyd George, of Clemenceau and of Woodrow Wilson, it will choose to tread the pathway of peace heedless of the Reeds, the Borahs and the Poindexters.

In nineteen cases out of twenty, those who are actively opposing the League of Nations are political enemies of President Wilson. Their personal and partisan dislike of him has warped their judgment, but it won't carry any influence with the American people.

Anti-administration newspapers and leaders in Congress have charged the Administration with every conceivable crime except failure to win the war. On that they are silent, but the American public has not forgotten and is not likely to forget.

Is it possible that there are Americans so partisan that they would rather see a recurrence of war than the establishment of a league of nations for which President Wilson would get the credit?

Republican Senators pretend to fear that the American eagle won't be the same old bird if a league of nations is established. Do they want him to be a bird of prey?

The many friends of these charming little ladies are very pleased to learn that they are rapidly improving and are able to attend school again.

The Wheeler Amusement Company played to an interested audience in Potter Valley each evening of the past week. The skillful acrobatic and wire walking performances and the moving pictures were all pleasing features of the show. Elsie, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hughes held the lucky coupon which won the ten-dollar bill Mrs. Clyde Foster, receiving a majority of votes cast during the six performances, was awarded the prize of a chest of silver ware. The company left for Lake county, on Sunday and will tour northern California and Oregon during the summer returning to their home in Anderson Valley for the winter.

TO BUILD DAIRY BARN

J. G. Newman has ordered the lumber and other material and is now ready to begin construction of a large dairy barn on his fine farm south of town. The structure will be 76 feet long, with a row of 20 stalls down each side, providing adequate accommodations for forty dairy cows. The floor will be of cement, and the barn will be fully equipped with Louden machinery consisting of iron stalls and stanchions, litter and feed carriers, power hoists, etc. Later a silo will be erected at the end of each row of stalls. Last week Mr. Newman purchased a fine pedigreed Holstein heifer of the Cream Cup herd from M. Holdridge of San Jose.

SOLDIER BOYS HOME

Leroy N. Barnett of the 316th Regiment of Engineers, 91st Division, arrived in this valley from France, last week. He will spend a week here visiting his mother, Mrs. V. M. Barnett, and his sister, Mrs. J. G. Newman. He saw service in the famous battle of the Argonne where the Engineers were thrown in to fill a breach in the Allied line. These Engineers, without hand grenades or machine guns and equipped only with rifles, fought bravely, and have received world-wide praise for their gallantry. After fighting for a day and a half in the Battle of the Argonne without food, a company of which he was a member, was retired and lined up for a lunch, when they were bombed by German aeroplanes. Eighty of the two hundred and fifty men were killed. This regiment constructed the roads behind the lines at St. Mihiel and were afterwards moved to Ypres and marched into Belgium to rebuild the bridges behind the retreating Germans. This perilous work consisted of constructing pontoon foot bridges first and then temporary bridges over which the heavy artillery could be moved.

Azel Wattenburger of the 316th Engineers also returned home last week. He is a talented musician and was a member of the Engineers' Band. He is being very cordially welcomed by his many relatives and lifelong friends. The greetings offered to these returned soldiers, each seem to contain a real prayer of thanksgiving for their safety.

FARM CENTER DANCE

The Potter Valley Farm Center dance, given in Grange Hall on May 9, was a complete success, both socially and financially. It proved to be a representative gathering, for among those present whose names are prominently associated with the Farm Bureau movement in this county were J. G. Newman, president of the Mendocino County Farm Bureau; Chas. Myszka, Farm Advisor of Mendocino County; J. M. Rupe, president of the Willits Farm Center; A. F. Busch, president of the Potter Valley Farm Center; L. B. Williams secretary of Potter Valley Farm Center and W. T. Eddie, treasurer of Potter Valley Farm Center. Each of these officials was acrompanied by his wife. That which will make this dance an important event in this history of this valley was the presence of our three soldiers, who had been at home from overseas, about two days, viz. Leroy N. Barnett and Azel Wattenburger of the 316th Engineers and George Burkhart of the 115th Supply Train. Walter Sandelin and many others from Ukiah were present. Willits was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Whitcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rupe, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rupe, Mr. and Mrs. John Dickey, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sagehorn. Cecil King of Talmage, accompanied by his wife, attended the dance and visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover King. Excellent music of which the dancers gave ample evidence of their appreciation, was furnished by Mrs. E. B. Gibson and Mr. Church of Ukiah. Mrs. Gibson's presence was a source of great pleasure to some of her old friends in this valley. Mrs. Hugh Preston of Ukiah was present at the party. A most interesting incident of the dance was the arrival of the bride and groom, which was the first public appearance of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dickey. They were saluted by the versatile pianist in the melodious strains of "Here Comes the Bride," and loudly cheered by many loving friends.

PROGRESS CLUB

The next meeting of the Potter Progress Club will be held in Grange Hall on Saturday evening, May 24th, and will be the fifth anniversary of the date of the club's organization. The program and social committees are planning to make this meeting a memoriable event in club history, and such it is sure to be, if not on the strength of its own excellence then on account of the reflected light of contemporaneous world events. The hall will be decorated in red and white roses, the club colors and flower. The color scheme will even extend to the delicious refreshments which will consist of white cake, strawberries and cream. All members and their families are requested to be present and participate in the pleasure and occupy a place in the history of the anniversary celebration in the year of the double nineteen.

CHURCH NOTES

Dr. Thomas Filben and wife of San Francisco were in this valley last week visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Filben. Dr. Filben has been a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church for the past thirty-five years and during that period has held many important pastorates in this state. He is now working with the Y. M. C. A. at the Presidio and holds the office of social secretary of the San Francisco organization. On Sunday, May 11, at the local M. E. Church, following an instructive session of the Sunday School, over which E. H. Shimmin presided, Dr. Filben delivered an eloquent and interesting sermon on the subject of "Religion and War."

The thriving Sunday School in Lower Potter held its regular session last Sunday, with its able Superintendent, Mrs. C. B. Neil, presiding. Evangelist Edgar Wattenburger delivered an interesting sermon, which was received by a large and attentive audience. The minister was accompanied by his younger brother, Azel Wattenburger, of the 316th Engineers, who returned from France last week. In his early youth, the returned soldier attended school in the school house where the services were held and lived in the house across the street, and he was the recipient of many hearty greetings from relatives and old friends.
